General Information:

After successful completion of probation, you may petition the court to dismiss the charges under Penal Code §1203.4. If it is in the interest of justice, the judge may allow you to file the petition before probation ends. Penal Code §1203.4 does not apply to a person who was denied probation and is currently on parole. Penal Code §1203.4 relief is not available to persons convicted of offenses specified in Penal Code §1203.4(b). These include most felony molestation offenses, certain other sex offenses, a few traffic offenses, and infractions.

Dismissal under Penal Code §1203.4(a) is available to a person convicted of a misdemeanor and not granted probation. To be eligible, the defendant must have fully complied with and performed the sentence of the court, must not be serving any other sentence, nor be charged with a crime, and must have, since judgment, “lived an honest and upright life,” obeying all laws.
